Name and Course

Frans van Lent, tutor

Critical Studies - Autonomous Practices

What inspires you?

People's need to keep developing for no other reason than growth itself.

What defines you as a tutor? Your strongest points?

The awareness that every aspect of life can be seen as a possible form and as a means of expression.

What is your dream/goal as a tutor?

To help students to become truly independent in their creativity. To make them aware that something that already exists should never be their aim but can always be an inspiring step towards something new.

Name one item on your bucket list

I don't have or want a bucket list.

Name a true pioneer

A great inspiration for me is Allan Kaprow. In his work, he took an essential step in turning the attention from to product to the process, from art to life.
